RESUME OF FRANK MICHAEL TETI

Frank Teti was born in Utica, New York, in 1937. He received a B.A., with a major in Political Science and a minor in Philosophy, from Los Angeles State College in 1960. In 1962 he received an M.A. in American Studies, also from Los Angeles State.

In the summer of 1961 he attended the Institute of World Affairs at Twin Lakes, Connecticut, on a Crown Zellerbach Foundation Fellowship.

From 1962 to 1966 he continued his graduate study at the Maxwell Graduate School of Citizenship and Public Affairs at Syracuse University. A Mosher Fund recipient, his dissertation topic was an intellectual history of the Progressive Era and its relationship to the Public Administration Movement. The dissertation was entitled Profile of a Progressive: The Life of Frederick Morgan Davenport, and is to be published by Syracuse University Press. He received his Doctorate in Social Science in June 1966.

While at Syracuse he worked as a research assistant in the Social Science Curriculum Center of Syracuse University, and as a teaching assistant in the departments of Public Affairs and History.

In August 1966 he joined the faculty of the Naval Postgraduate School where he is teaching in the Department of National Security Affairs.

He is a member of the American Historical Society, American Political Science Association and Phi Sigma Alpha.
